Representing Future Generations

May 3rd & 4th, 2013
Munich School of Philosophy, Munich
Organizers: Axel Gosseries (Louvain University), Lukas Köhler (Munich School of Philosophy), Ivo Wallimann-Helmer (University of Zurich)

Schedule

Friday, May 3rd

9:00-9:10  Axel Gosseries
          Welcome and Introduction

9:10-9:40  Maja Göppel
          Challenges to a Representative of Future Generations I
          Comments: Sandor Fulop / Halina Ward

The Relevance of the All Affected Principle (Chair: Marcus Düwell)

9:40-10:30  Gustaf Arrhenius (Stockholm)
            The All Affected Principle and Future Generations
            Comment 1

10:30-11:00  Break (Coffee)

11:00-11:50  Lukas Köhler (Munich)
            The All Affected Principle and the Future
            Comment 2

11:50-13:20  Lunch

Public Deliberation and Future Generations (Chair: Ivo Wallimann-Helmer)

13:20-14:10  Bernice Bovenkerk (Utrecht)
             Public Deliberation and the Inclusion of Future Generations
             Comment 4

14:10-14:20  Break

14:20-15:10  Anja Karnein (Frankfurt a.M.)
             Why it Takes More than One to Represent Future Generations
             Comment 5

15:10-15:40  Break (Coffee)

15:40-16:30  Andrew Rehfeld (St. Louis)
             TBA
             Comment 6

16:30-16:40  Break

16:40-17:40  Sandor Fulop
             Two Strategies to Represent Future Generations
             Comment: Maja Göppel / Halina Ward

19:00  Dinner
Saturday, May 4th

The Role of Current Interests (Chair: Lukas Köhler)

9:00-9:50  Karsten Klint Jensen (Copenhagen)
Future Generations in Democracy – Representation or Consideration?
Comment 7

9:50-10:00  Break

10:00-10:50  Ivo Wallimann-Helmer (Zurich)
Why Representing Demands of Sustainability in Democracy?
Comment 8

10:50-11:20  Break (Coffee)

11:20-12:10  Ludwig Beckman (Stockholm)
Future People and the Representation/Responsibility Dilemma
Comment 9

12:10-13:40  Lunch

Institutional Redesign for the Future (Chair: Axel Gosseries)

13:40-14:30  Jörg Tremmel (Tübingen)
Representing Future People: A Separation of Powers Perspective
Comment 10

14:30-14:40  Break

14:40-15:30  Joachim H. Spangenberg (Halle)
Reconciling Legitimacy, Concern and Competence: In Defense of an Expert Committee with Temporary Veto Power
Comment 11

15:30-15:50  Break (Coffee)

15:50-16:40  Marcus Düwell / Andreas Spahn
TBA
Comment 12

16:40-17:10  Halina Ward
Challenges to a Representative of Future Generations III
Comments: Sandor Fulop / Maja Göppel

17:10-17:30  Axel Gosseries
Final Remarks, Organizational Matters

19:00  Dinner

Financially supported by:

Hochschule für Philosophie München

University of Zurich UZH

URPP for Ethics